

COVID-19 NEW ZEALAND

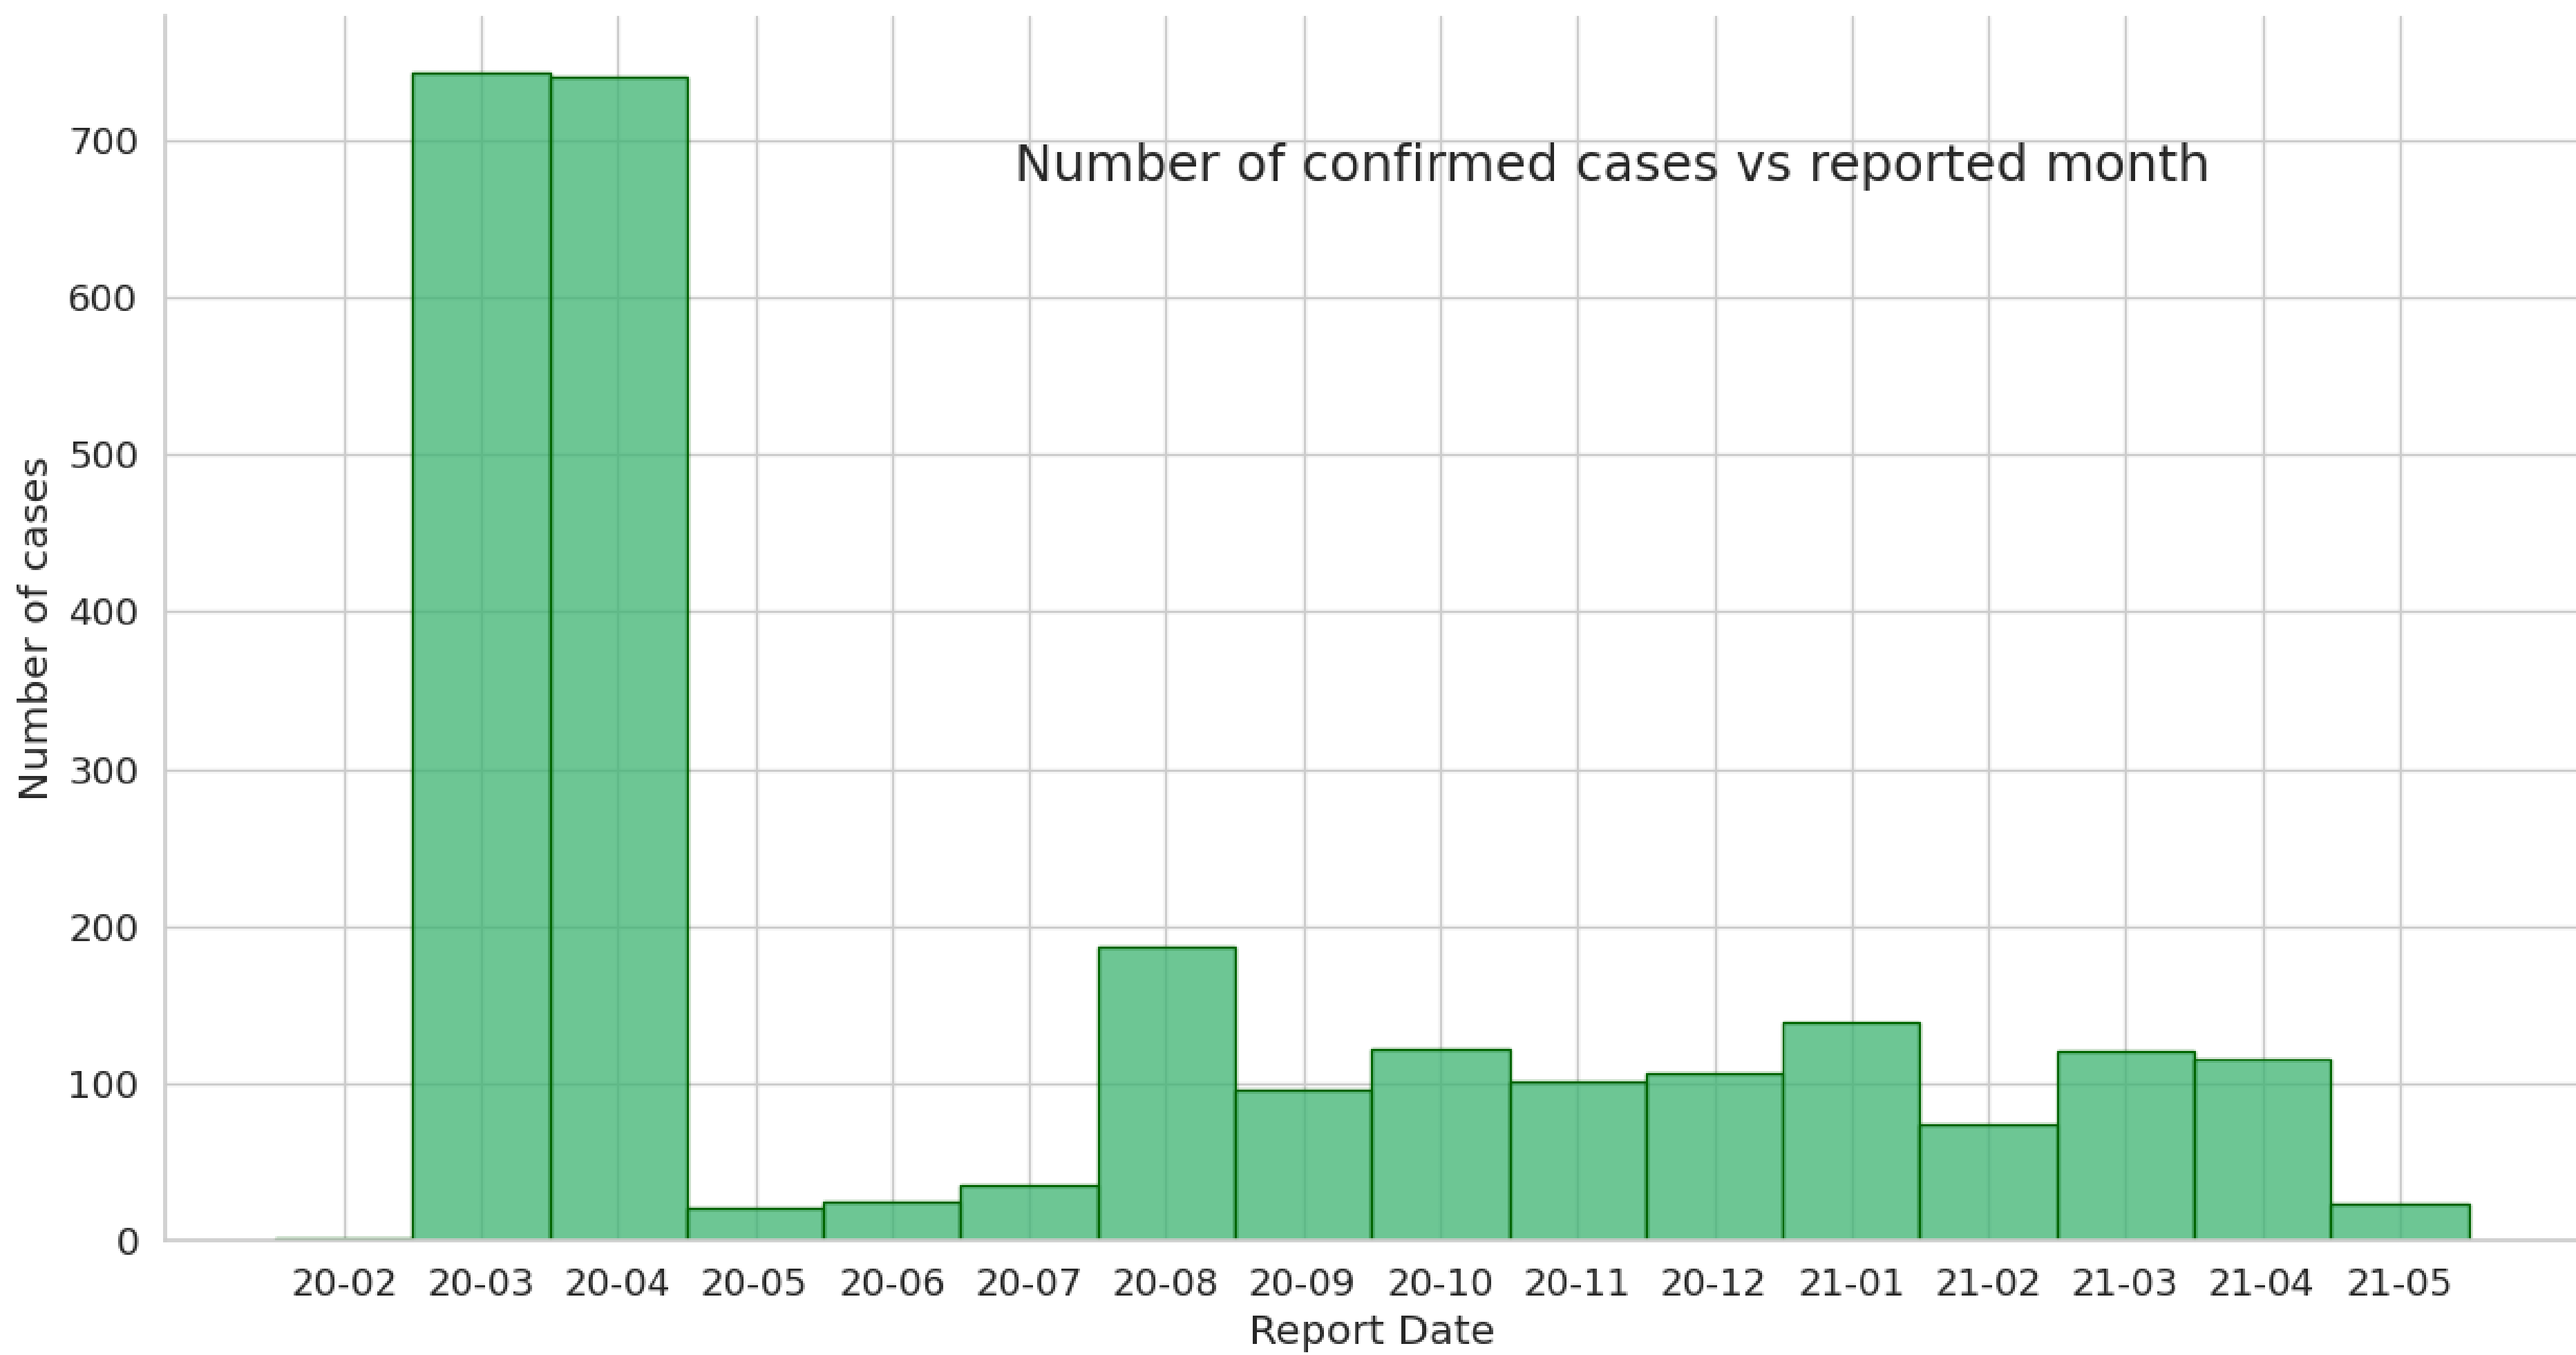

Paulina Duda, Patrycja Owczarek
For Data Analysis and Visualization

Abstract

In June 2020 New Zealand’s governments announce the country covid-free. While, it didn’t last long the New Zealand is still one of the country with low covid-19 cases and covid-related deaths. In this report we will focus on comparing the covid-19 cases in New Zealand to other countries and try to analyze government’s response to the pandemic. Additionally we will shows the demographic of covid-19 patients and how the pandemic influences different regions of New Zealand’s economy.

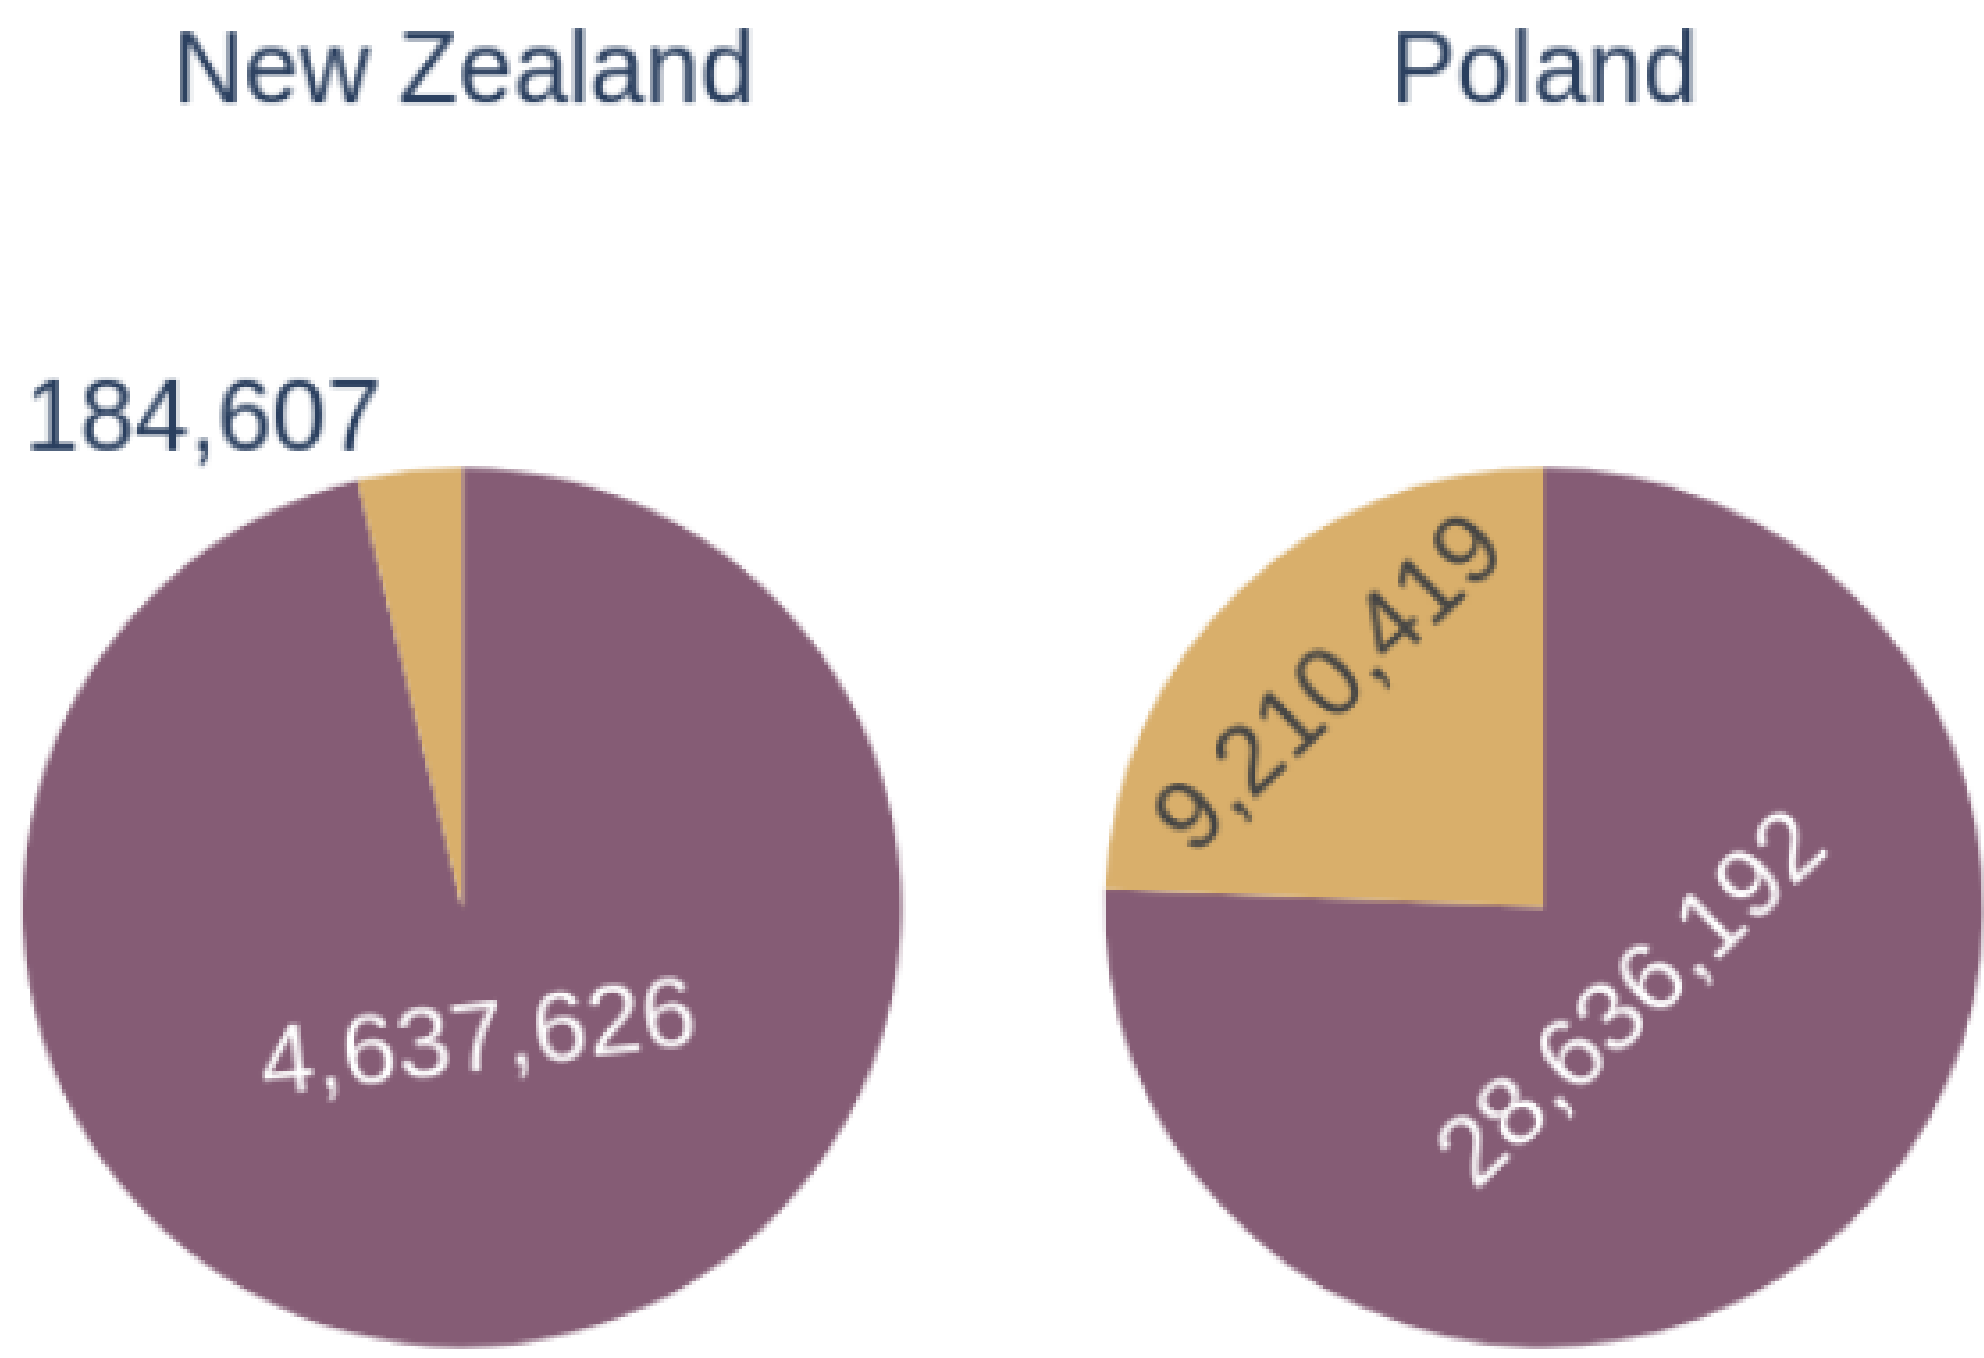

Number of confirmed cases per month

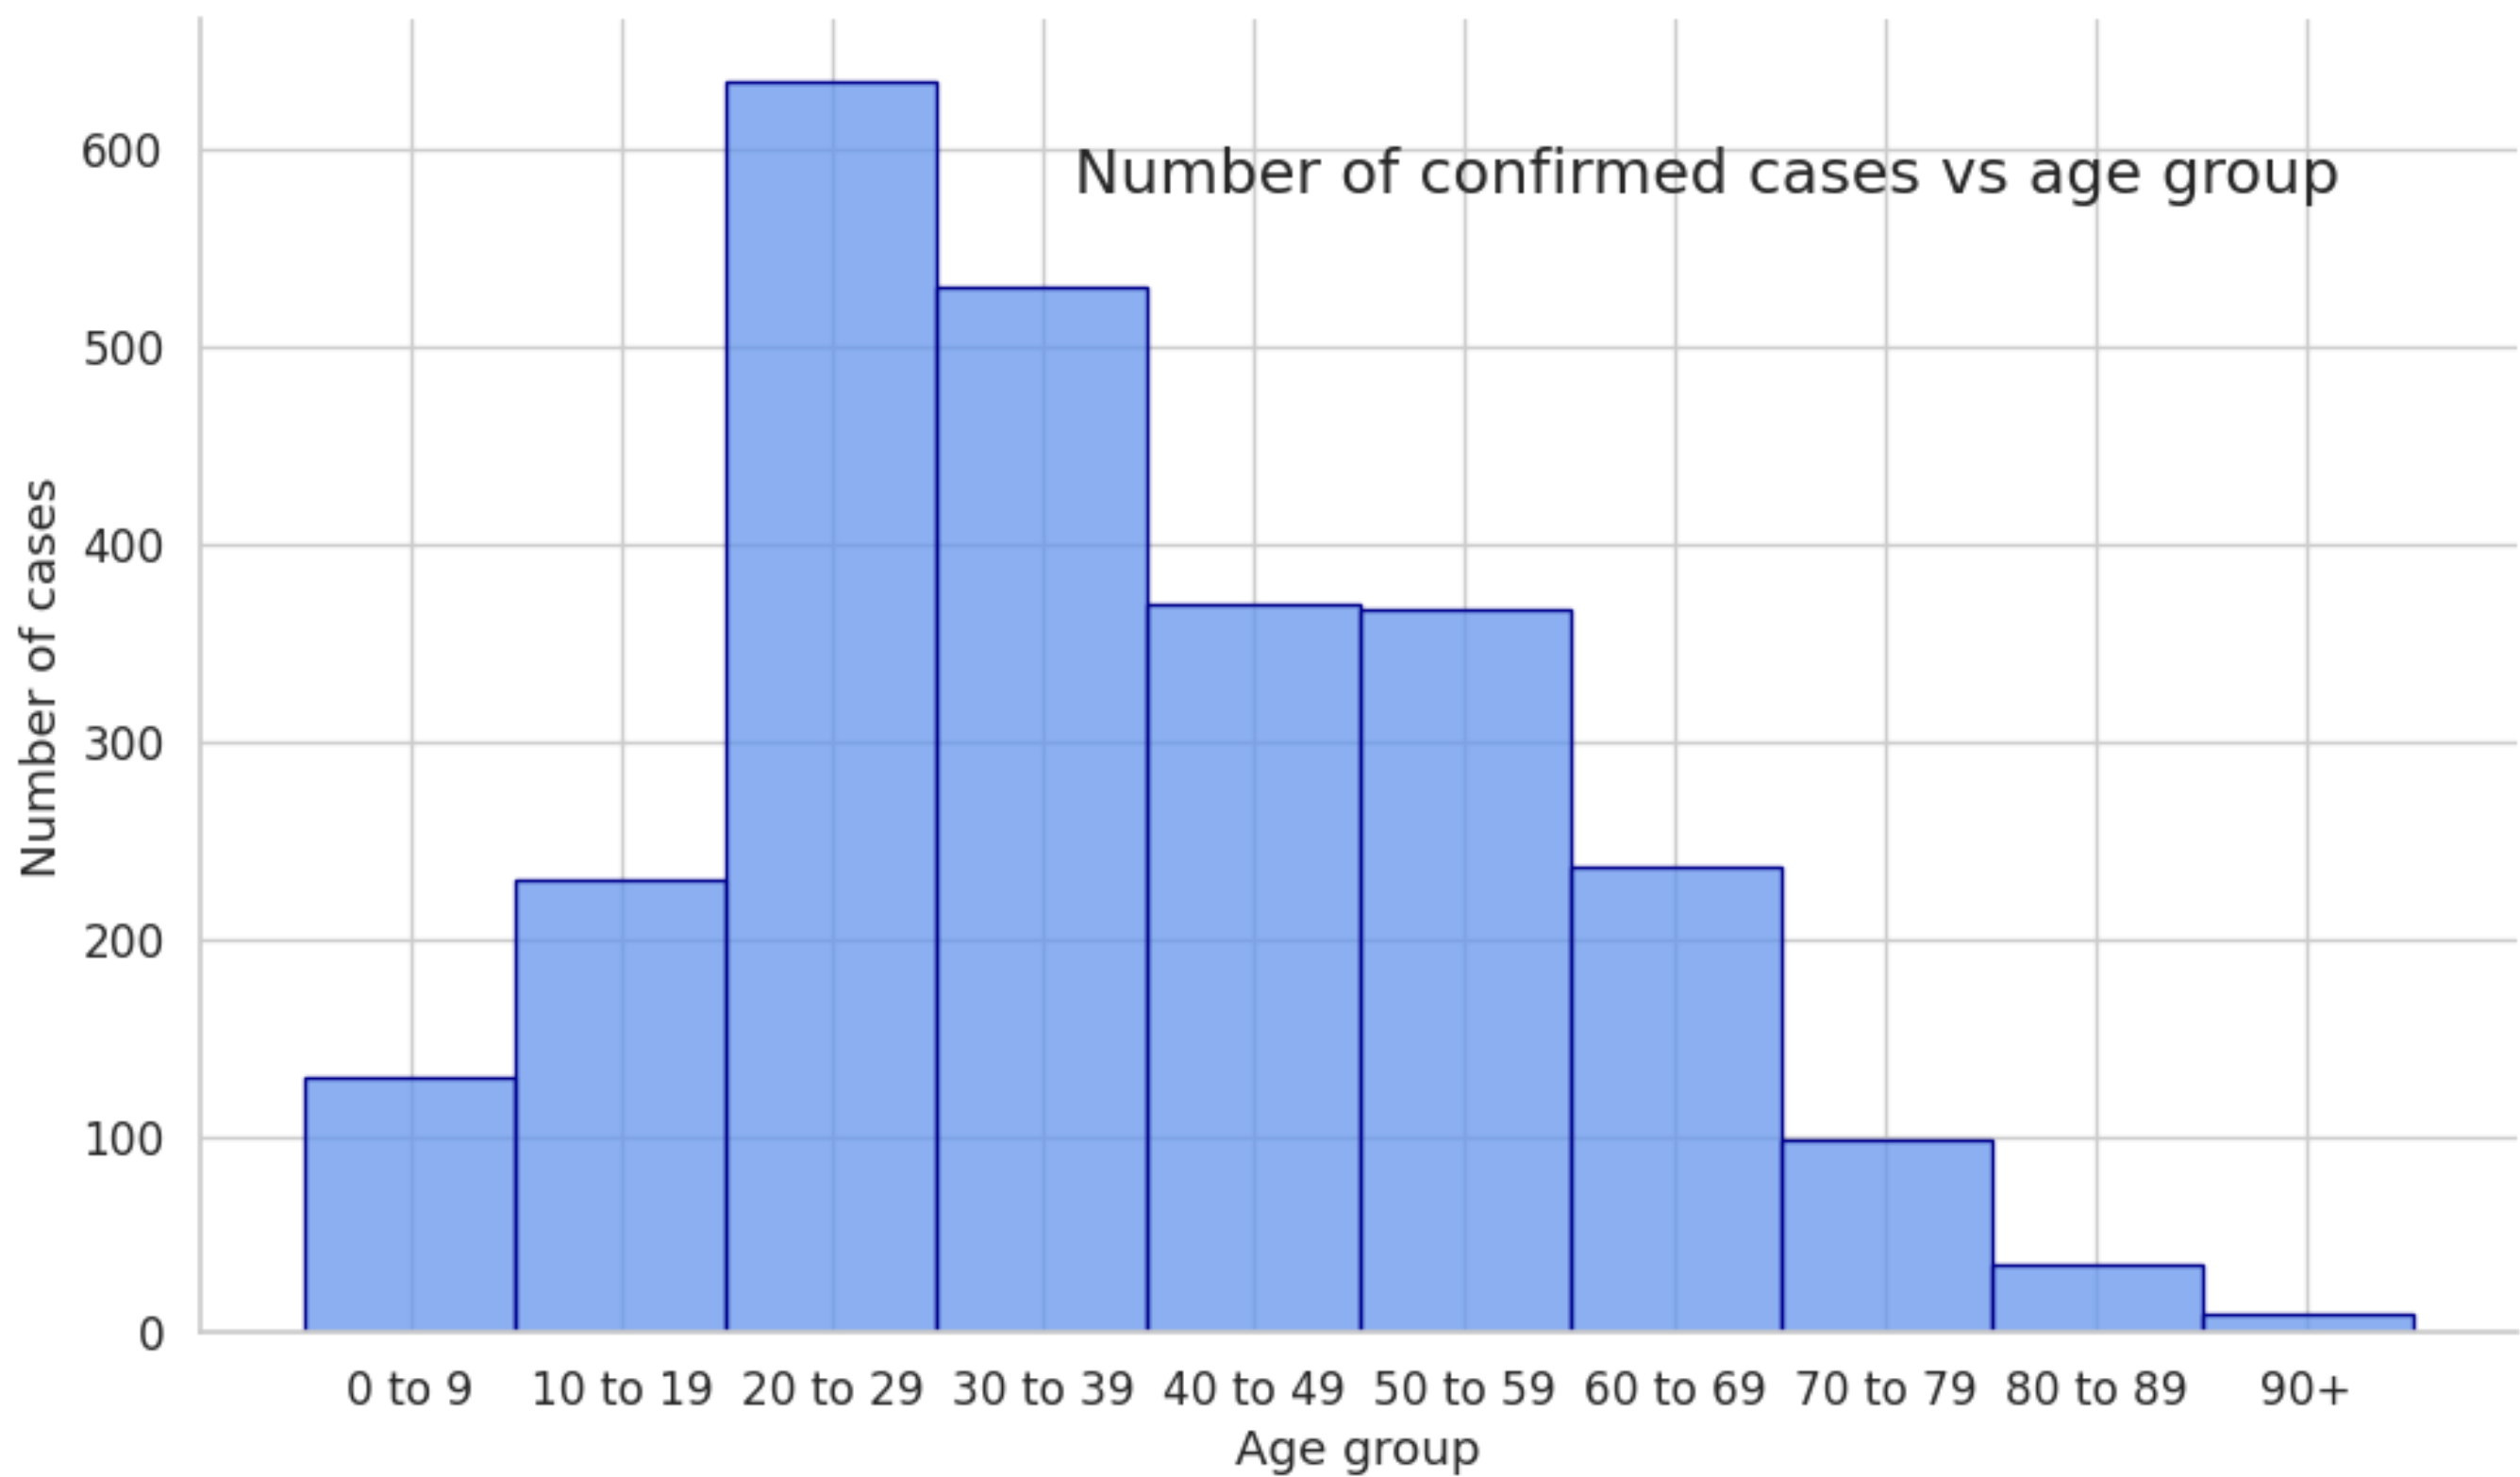

COVID-19 vs gender

Female	Male	All
1 347	1 296	2 643
50.96 %	49.04 %

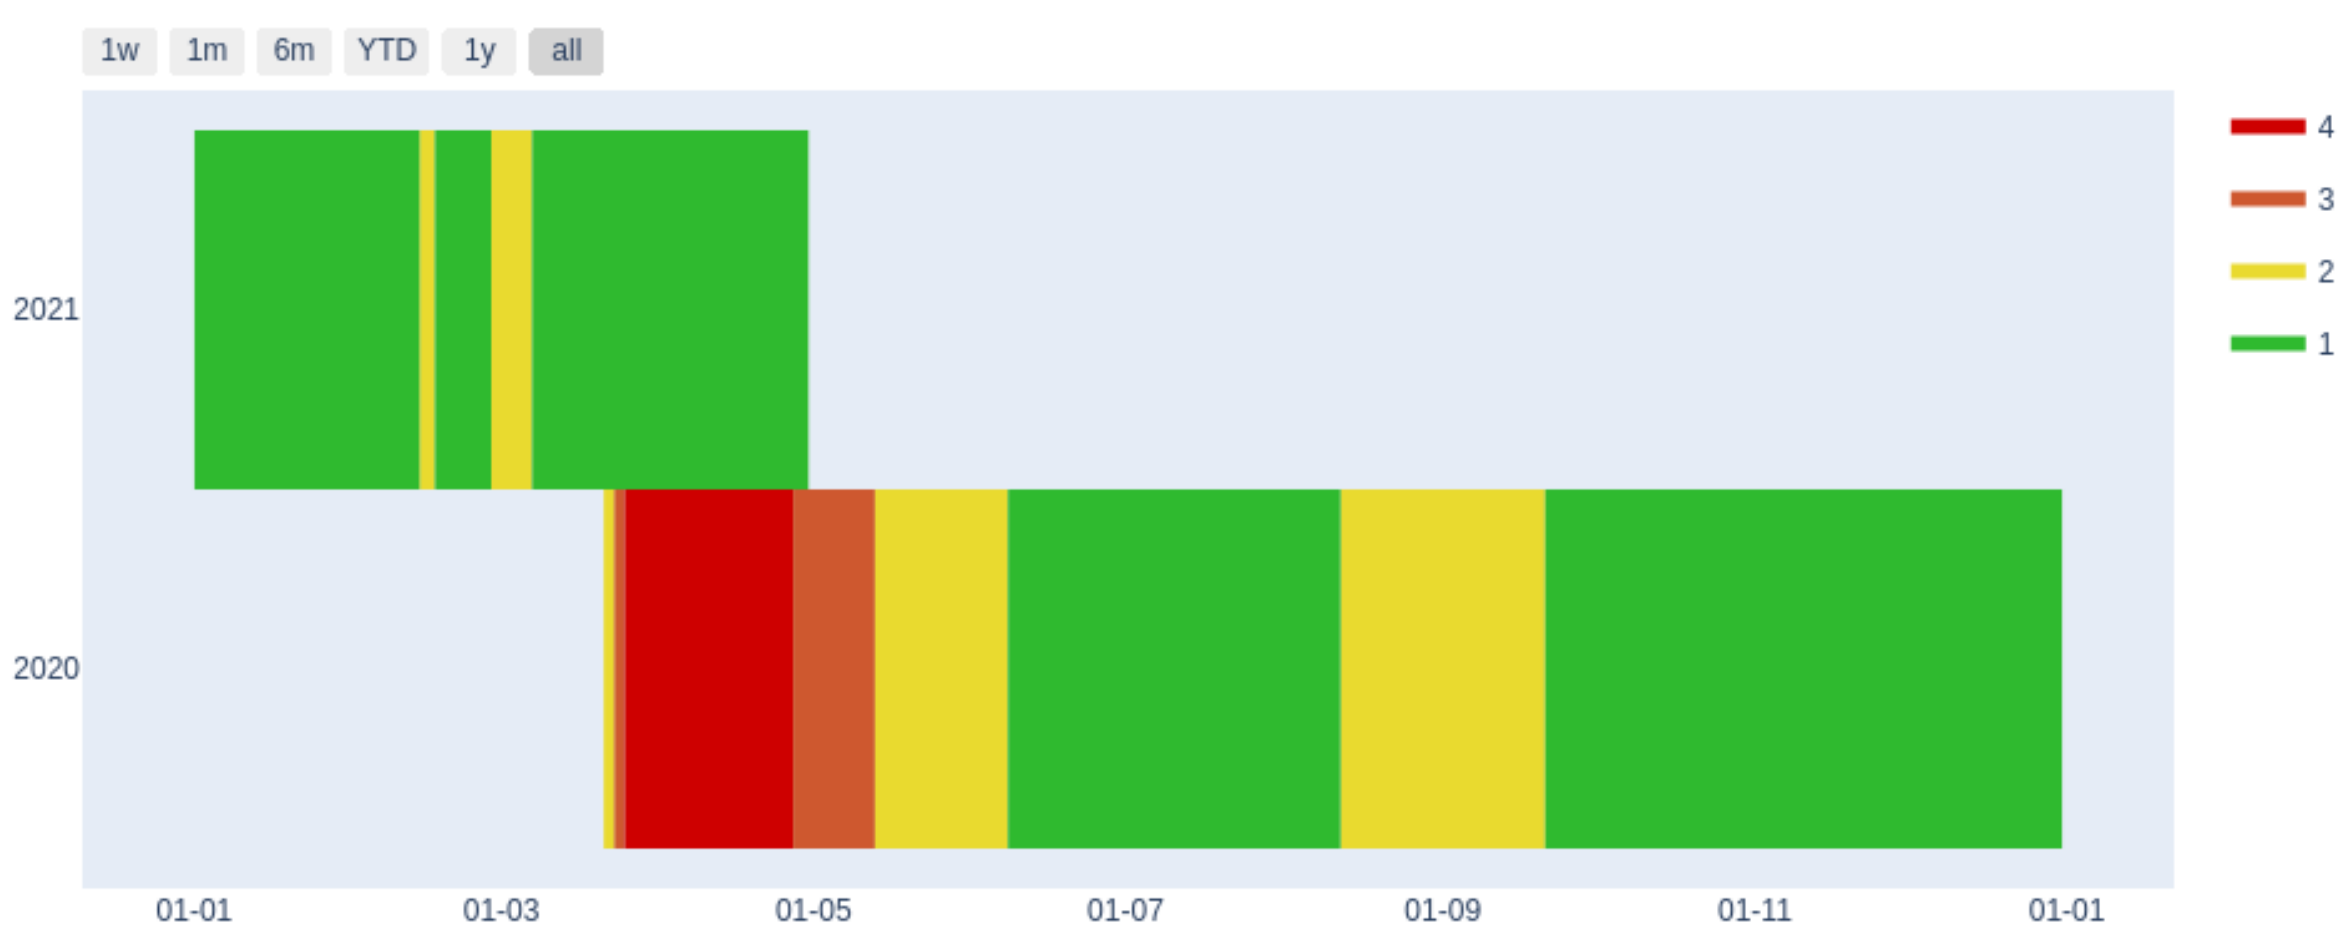

COVID-19 vaccination ratio

Number of confirmed cases vs age

Alerts levels in New Zealand

Clarification of alert levels

Level 1	Level 2
Border restrictions Face coverings Keep your distance	Quarantine and testing Face coverings Keep your distance Limited gatherings and events
Level 3	Level 4
Stay within your house Travel is heavily restricted Gatherings of up to 10 people Limited capacity in schools	Travel is severely limited Public venues are closed Educational facilities are closed Businesses are closed

Bibliography

Covid data for different countries: Our World in Data || Covid data for New Zealand and covid-related area: Covid-19 data portal || Alert levels and New Zealand calendar: History of the COVID-19 Alert System || Unemployment rate: OECD || World population: Worldometers